Meetings are held once a month from March until December, when members gather to enjoy live, local music, performed by professional and amateur musicians in a soiree setting followed by supper (supplied by the members).

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Local musicians founded the LAB (Licentiates of the Associated Board) Club for English diploma holders at the suggestion of the visiting examiner for the Associated Board in 1926, Maurice Besly. Mr Harry Vowles was the first President, followed by Mrs Cecil Mason and in 1935 the name was changed to its present title of the Royal Schools Music Club.

Members met regularly on Saturday evenings in the Lady Onslow Hall (Karrakatta Club), and in this gracious setting solo recitals and ensembles were presented for friends of music. Full formal dress was worn, with ladies in long gloves – and delicate suppers were served. Special evenings were arranged for the visiting examiners from England.

Between 1947 and 1952 the Club used various venues around Perth. However in 1986 it moved to The University of Western Australia, where it first met in the Eileen Joyce Studio at the School of Music, followed by the Callaway Music Auditorium, its present "home".

Meetings were always held on a Saturday evening until 1997 when, in the three winter months of June, July and August, they were replaced by Sunday afternoons. Supper/afternoon tea (provided by members), is still served at the end of each concert. Traditionally, every meeting starts with the assembled company singing both the British and the Australian national anthems.

Members of the Royal Schools Music Club (Inc.), RSMC, continue to be musicians and music lovers from all walks of life.

To commemorate the 80th Anniversary, the history of the Club has been recorded in the book, Past Present and Future: The History of the Royal Schools Music Club in Western Australia 1926-2006 by Jean Farrant, which is available to members of the public. Enquiries: 9386 2654.
