Meetings are held once a month starting in March, when members gather to enjoy live, local music, performed by professional and amateur musicians in a soiree setting. Refreshments are served (supplied by the members).

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Local musicians founded the LAB (Licentiates of the Associated Board) Club for English diploma holders at the suggestion of the visiting examiner for the Associated Board in 1926, Maurice Besly. Mr Harry Vowles was the first President, followed by Mrs Cecil Mason and in 1935 the name was changed to its present title of the Royal Schools Music Club.

Members met regularly on Saturday evenings in the Lady Onslow Hall (Karrakatta Club), and in this gracious setting solo recitals and ensembles were presented for friends of music. Full formal dress was worn, with ladies in long gloves – and delicate suppers were served. Special evenings were arranged for the visiting examiners from England.

Between 1947 and 1952 the Club used various venues around Perth. However in 1986 it moved to The University of Western Australia, where it first met in the Eileen Joyce Studio at the School of Music, followed by the Callaway Music Auditorium, its present “home”.

Meetings were always held on a Saturday evening until 1997 when, in the three winter months of June, July and August, they were replaced by Sunday afternoons. Refreshments (provided by members), are still served at each concert. Traditionally, every meeting starts with the assembled company singing both the British and the Australian national anthems.

Members of the Royal Schools Music Club (Inc), RSMC, continue to be musicians and music lovers from all walks of life.

To commemorate the 90th Anniversary, a supplement to the history of the Club to cover the past decade has been published. For information on Past Present and Future: The History of the Royal Schools Music Club 1926-2006 and Ten Years On - The Royal Schools Music Club Turns 90 2007-2016 (both by Jean Farrant) contact the Club: rsmc@inet.net.au or 0419 930 624.
